THREE-ALARM FIRE HITS OAKLAND BLIND MANUFACTORY

OAKLAND, (UP)—Fire destroyed the plant of the Ambassador Venetian Blind Company today. Three alarms were sounded before the blaze was brought under control. One fireman was injured.

Texan, Hunting Mail Box, Calls Firemen

SACRAMENTO, (UP)—A. C. Collins, 21-year-old Texas youth visiting here, resolved today to mail his letters in the main postoffice after he inadvertently turned in a fire alarm last night.

WEATHER

Fair tonight, Sat., Sun; little temp. change; high, 87; low 42.

There seems to be some confusion about the expiration of the time for registering and the expiration of the time for filing candidacies in the approaching election.

Erroneous information on the subject has been published locally and elsewhere in the state, although the dates are set definitely and there should be no difficulty in ascertaining the correct dates.

June 25 is the last day for filing nominations of candidacies, June 25.

The last day to attend to the matter of registration is July 21—next month. Fred Spriggs was a caller from his resort in the American River canyon Friday morning.

Birth of a son, Junior Lee Warren, to Mr. and Mrs. James R. Warren, of Shingle, on June 16, is reported in a certificate on file Friday morning with Recorder Charles Marsh.

William Stearns was a caller from Coloma on Friday morning.

The woods crew of the California Door Company is preparing to move from near Cole's Station to Camp Webster, for a resumption of work there which was halted last fall. We understand that logging in the Cole's Station district is possible without the use of trucks, but that at Camp Webster, trucks are required. Weather and road conditions thus combine to make the logging season at Camp Webster close earlier in the fall and open later in the Spring, than at the lower camp.

New Trial In Gold Case To Be Set Monday In Amador County Court At Jackson

JACKSON—Date for a second trial of Antone Garcia, charged in ten counts of a grand jury indictment with receiving stolen property, will be set in Superior Court Monday.

The jury in the first hearing, which opened Monday of this week, was dismissed Thursday afternoon when they reported after almost four hours of deliberation that they were unable to agree.

Walter H. Taylor, foreman, reported to Judge Roy B. Maxey, of Modesto, who was presiding, that the talesmen were divided in their opinion, 7 to 5. It was not indicated whether a majority of the jurors felt Garcia guilty or not guilty.

Nine men and three women made up the panel.

The charges against Garcia are related to the Black Oak mine highgrading investigation in El Dorado County and a number of the men who were convicted on charges of highgrading at the mine appeared as state's witnesses, testifying as to their transactions with (Continued on page 4)

SHANGHAI, (UP)—Military engineers admitted tonight they had lost their fight to control the great Yellow river flood pouring across central China.

As the end of a 48 hour crisis neared, the river had spread over more than 1500 square miles. Thousands of persons were drowned; 3500 or more villages were under water and more than 700,000 were homeless.

The river threatened to break a new outlet to the sea some 300 miles south of its present mouth.

The committee, composed of west coast sportsmen, business men and political leaders, includes Al Johnson, film star.

It was estimated such a fight might draw a gate of $600,000 to $750,000 to the sports event field being built on Treasure Island, site of the exposition.

MINING ASSESSMENT BILL IS APPROVED BY HOUSE

Committee Reverses Itself On Reconsideration And Suspension Will Become Law When Measure Is Signed By President Roosevelt, Congressman Wires

The suspension of mining assessment work may be continued this year, according to a telegram to this newspaper Thursday night by Congressman Harry L. Englebright.

It had appeared until Thursday that the mining assessment suspension might not be continued, but on Thursday the mines and mining committee of the House of Representatives took the bill up again on reconsideration, passed it out of committee and it was approved by the House of Representatives.

The measure, according to Congressman Englebright, now goes to the President for his signature before it becomes a law.

Terms of the bill as passed are identical with the bill passed last year, Congressman Englebright reported.

We learn that the measure was unexpectedly called up in the mining committee by Representative Murdock, of Arizona.

McCall was taken to his cell in the county jail after receiving sentence yesterday, but it was expected that he would be transferred soon to the state prison farm at Raiford where the execution would occur.

C. A. Avriett, attorney retained by McCall's relatives in an attempt to gain clemency for the 21 year old truck driver, said that he would request the state pardon board to commute the death sentence.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, (UP)—Take one part wild horse stampede, one part earthquake, and one part evacuation of a doomed city. Mix well. Serve stewing hot in a little room under the shade and the rumble of the Sixth Avenue elevated line.

That will give you a faint picture of the ten-goal bedlam that goes on in the offices of the Twentieth Century Sporting Club these days, now that the Max Schmeling-Joe Louis fight is less than a week away.

A million dollars worth of tickets are on sale to the accompaniment of a million dollars worth of turmoil, confusion, and uproar. Clerks bound madly from here to there. Stenographers pound on their typewriters with the fury of a blacksmith. Messengers tear from spot to spot. Customers push, shove, trample and fight.

I walked into the middle of this scene and innocently inquired if I might speak to Mike Jacobs, the promoter and head man of the fight.

Everyone looked at me as if I was crazy.

I repeated my request for an audience with Jacobs and was then impatiently told that he couldn't see anyone—that he was too busy, too up to his ears in work, too involved in conferences, too—well, that he couldn't be disturbed; that his master mind was working at streamline speed, and that I must be crazy if I thought I could take up a moment of his precious time.

Beaten into retreat, I sought an escape and, seeing a small door ajar off the main office, slipped into it. It was like stepping into another world.

Quiet and peace reigned. The room was vacant save for one man, who sat reading at a big desk in the dim light of one corner.

I recognized him as Mike Jacobs, the head man, and I held my breath lest I disturb him at his work. He is working on some profound angle of the fight, or he is poring over an intricate financial statement, I thought.

I started to sneak away, and then he looked up.

"Look what this damn thing says," he said, waving an orange-colored, paper-backed book.

I moved closer and studied the book. It was MacDonald's farmer's almanac for 1938, and on its cover it promised the reader perfect dates to plant and harvest by the moon; gave predictions about the crops, the weather, sickness, lucky days, and future events.

"What do you care about the crops and sickness?" I asked. "You're a prize-fight promoter."

Then Jacobs told me about the book and had faith in it. Long before he began promoting for himself, back in the days when he was first lieutenant for

Tex Ricard, Jacobs depended on MacDonald's almanac (price 25 cents) for the choice of dates for fights. Not once has the book been wrong about the weather, he says. Not once has its interpretations of the stars and the moon and other heavenly bodies proved incorrect.

"But this time I forgot about the almanac," Mike said, "and it's got me worried. Look here what it says about the 22nd of June."

I started reading aloud.

"The best days for weaning babies in 1938: the moon should be in Aquarius, Capricorn or Sagittarius."

"Nothing wrong there," I said.

I read some more:

"April 1, 1938, was the birthday of Dr. Harvey, discoverer of the circulation of blood . . . one half of the state of Florida is composed of lakes, streams and rivers . . . Yucca is the state flower of New Mexico . . . chicken eggs require 21 days to hatch, ducks and turkeys 21, and geese 30 . . . waving of the hair is best done in the second quarter of the moon, but hair should be trimmed when the moon is in the cancer . . ."

"You're reading the wrong place," Mike yelled. "Read here."

He showed me a table interpreting the days of the month of June:

"June 22 will be a very disappointing day."

"That's too bad," I said. "How much money have you taken in all ready?"

"A little over $600,000," Jacobs answered. "We're sure to reach a million or more."

With a loud laugh, I left him alone with his 25-cent almanac and his $600,000.

"YOU CAN'T ENJOY ART ON AN EMPTY STOMACH OR WITH THE SEAT OUT OF YOUR PANTS," KILLS INTERIOR DEPARTMENT BILL IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, (UP)—You can't enjoy art on an empty stomach or with the seat of your pants out.

With that offered as an adage by Rep. Dewey Short, a Republican and self styled Ozark Hillbilly of Galena, Mo., the house killed a bill to establish a bureau of fine arts in the department of the interior.

But the vote to table it was not taken until Rep. William I. Sirovich, D. N. Y., its author, had lectured, despite Republican ridicule, on the glory and grandeur of ancient Greece and Rome and the philosophy of Immanuel Kant, and had quoted Disraeli and Hippocrates.

He cited Hippocrates to bear out his assertion that he would win in the end. Hippocrates, according to Sirovich, said: "Life is short, but art long." Sirovich ventured the opinion that art would outlast the house of representatives.

After Sirovich had extolled the virtues of art and the possibilities of his bill, Short delivered the coup de grace to the bill.

"Of course, all we need to do with 12,000,000 out of employment is to enact this legislation in order that we may teach toe dancing so we can restore prosperity," Short said.

"Down in my country they (Works Progress Administration) have been hiring old maids to teach mothers how to pin diapers on their babies."

Praising his own appreciation of Chopin's nocturnes, Wagnerian opera and Beethoven's symphonies, he said.

"But God knows I never enjoyed even Puccini on an empty stomach. And with millions of people hungry and barely clothed I do not see how anybody can feel comfortable or enjoy listening to the strains of Mendelssohn with the seat of his pants out.

AUBURN — More preparation for camp. It seems that no matter how much we do there is always a dozen other things staring us in the face.

Major Bremer paid us one of his periodic visits last night. He seemed fairly well satisfied with the way that things were coming along.

Colonel Murray informed us that we could enlist six men before camp period. Previous to this announcement it was understood that we could enlist no one ninety days prior to the camp period. We would like to have anyone interested in a swell trip with pay to come to the Armory next Tuesday night and contact us for particulars.

The work on the range is progressing rapidly and by a week from Sunday we will have fired every man in the company.

The boys' cotton shirts have arrived and will be given out to them next Tuesday night. I know they will be sorry to pack the old woollens away in moth balls until next winter.

First Lieutenant Daniel C. Maybury received confirmation of his appointment and assignment to the Auburn Unit as of May 26. Lieutenant Maybury, known to nearly everyone as "Red," is well known in Auburn and Placerville and is a very welcome addition to the officer personnel. He is employed by the Standard Oil Company of California.

It is with pleasure we announce the appointment of Private William Sayers of Placerville to the rank of Corporal. Good going Bill.

ADDER BESIDE MOTORIST

BECKETT, Mass., (UP)—While motor-ing alone through Berkshire hills, Sergeant Ariel K. Raymond felt a movement against his leg. He looked down and almost lost control of his car. For he saw a three-foot spotted adder twining itself round him.

All sheep men are urged to attend and any sheep man who does not receive a notice of the meeting from the Farm Advisor, should contact that office and enroll his name so that he will receive notices of such meetings in the future.

PHILADELPHIA, (U)—Dr. George C. Snyder, 60, of 824 Curtis Street, Berkeley, Calif., collapsed from a heart attack on a trolley car yesterday and died before reaching a hospital. The physician and his wife were returning to their hotel after visiting a nephew, Dr. Ralph A. Klemm.

Mrs. Lucy Bundren has disposed of her home place on the north side of the river and will move to San Fernando Valley, in Los Angeles County. Mrs. Bundren came here from Los Angeles some ten or twelve years ago and purchased what is known as the old McBeth home from Leroy Thomas and by thrift and industry it was soon transformed into a cozy ranch home with only the best of stock and fowl on the place, but the hard years we have had struck heavily. E. Johnson, partner and co-worker with Mrs. Bundren, also goes to Los Angeles. They have been most kind and considerate friends and neighbors and will be missed.

Miss Helen Gallegher is home from Woodland where she attends school. Joseph Papina and family are up from Sacramento to spend the summer at their cottage on Main Street.

Mrs. Mamie Thomas and Mrs. Annie Jaeger visited Coloma relatives last week.

Speaking of bribes, the humble "weiner" holds a very important place, at least with one small boy. The reminder was overheard as the audience at a recent dance recital hurried to their cars at its conclusion: "Now you know, Daddy, you promised, you said if I did well tonight you would get me all the weenies I wanted." Here's hoping that Daddy stood good for every last weiner that little lad could hold, for he surely did well.

SCHMELING TO RANK WITH BOXING "GREAT" IF SUCCESSFUL

NEW YORK, (U)—They never come back.

Down through the years, from the night of May 11, 1900, when Jim Corbett tried the first great "comeback" heavyweight champions — with high hopes and stout hearts as their major weapons—have tried to regain boxing's most prized crown.

All of them failed—some long before they even got a chance to fight again for the crown; others when victory seemed only seconds away.

Now Max Schmeling, 32 years old, is certain—like the others were—that he is the man to shatter the tradition. Schmeling, unlike any of his predecessors, will step into the ring against a man he had beaten before. None of the others enjoyed such an advantage.

And if Max defeats Joe Louis next Wednesday his name will rank high on the honor roll, perhaps even above those of Sullivan, Fitzsimmons, Corbett, Jeffries and Dempsey.

WEED CONTROL MEASURES URGED AT PENOBSCOT MEETING

Approximately thirty range operators who met Thursday night at the Penobscot schoolhouse, to consider action to be taken to curb the spread of a recently discovered range weed in the county concluded that the program for this year probably will be limited to burning.

It was explained that it is too late in the season to expect to accomplish much at this time by the use of other practices.

Next year, the program will be continued with cultivation, oiling, mowing and burning.

In the meanwhile, stockmen of the county will be asked to be on the alert for evidence of the spread of the weed which, according to Farm Advisor Ivan Lilley, apparently has a strong start in the county.

The weed is described as being similar in appearance to a fox tail but has the characteristic of remaining green later into the summer than does the fox tail.

It is without value as a range growth, and spreads rapidly.

The Thursday night meeting was called by the Farm Advisor and by the county Agricultural Conservation Association. The weed has been known to exist in the coast counties for some years past, but it is said that this is the first time its presence in the foothill areas has been noted.

Jurors Doubt Garcia Guilt

Garcia in highgraded gold.

Garcia, in the closing hours of the trial, had admitted purchasing gold ore from a score of miners. He said he never asked where the ore came from and declared that the machinery used in processing it did not belong to him.

The case was given to the jury at noon Thursday and they returned at 3:50 o'clock with the report they were hopelessly deadlocked. They were then discharged and a motion for a new trial was offered by District Attorney Allen Martin.

Mrs. Julia Hoffman, of San Francisco, spent the past week at the home of her son, Captain and Mrs. Don. M. Hoffman, near Sportsman's Hall.
